GUNFIRE WORKS
WELL AT THE BAY

Fast Work Seen Over Coney Island Course—Track Has Nearly Dried Out—Brighton Infield Is Under Water.

SHEEPSHEAD BAY, N. Y., Oct. 12.—The scene of training operations was removed today from Morris Park to the Coney Island Jockey Club grounds.

The track, although not having quite recovered from the rain, was in fairly good shape, and there was quite some speed shown.

W. C. Whitney's Gunfire covered a mile and a furlong in 2:06 1/2, and was on the bit all the way. Horatius covered six furlongs in 1:20.

Trainer E. J. Healey sent Hylander a mile and a furlong in 2:02. Julia M. covered five furlongs in 1:06 1/2. Cinquavalli did six furlongs in 1:23 1/2. Candelario was asked six furlongs in 1:21.

J. A. Drake's Runnels, Wyeth and South Tumble going together covered six furlongs in 1:23 1/2.

R. T. Wilson's Kinkikink and Dolly Spanker going together covered six furlongs in 1:25.

The Lotus Stable's Hands Up and Black Socks turned five furlongs in 1:10. James Galloway's Brigand galloped a mile and a furlong in 2:02.

A. J. Joyner sent Parisienne six furlongs in 1:21. Waterboy was confined to his box stall and not even allowed to walk around the stable.

J. W. Schorr's Dutiful and Cloverton, going together, clipped off six furlongs in 1:19.

E. S. Brown's Hands Across reeled off a half in 0:51 1/2.

M. Danahar sent Monochord six furlongs in 1:22 1/2.

J. J. McLaughlin sent Graceful a half in 0:58 1/2. St. Gallin did five furlongs in 1:12.

G. H. Whitney's Lida Lab covered five furlongs in 1:11.

Trainer G. Butler sent Rothbridge six furlongs in 1:22 1/2.

At the Brighton Beach course the infield was covered with water, but the track was safe and dry and the galloping indulged in was on the fast side.

NEW BOWLING RECORD.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 12.—A new tenpin bowling record has been made. Harold F. Cribbins made forty-nine consecutive strikes out of fifty balls rolled.

PITTSBURG AND BOSTON
CANNOT PLAY TO-DAY.

Grounds in "Beantown" in Terrible Shape—Heavy Betting on Games, with Bostons Favorites.

Standing in Championship Series.
Club. W. L. P. G. Club. W. L. P. G.
Boston. 4 5 571 Pittsburg. 3 4 456
BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 12.—There will be no interleague championship baseball game between the Boston American team and the Pittsburg Pirates this afternoon.

The grounds are in terrible shape from the recent rains, and it was seen early this morning that it would be absolutely impossible to play the game scheduled for this afternoon.

With the Boston team one game to the good, after having looked like sure losers of the series, it is hard to see how they can lose. Pittsburg has had to rely on one pitcher, while Boston had four of five of the first class. Philippi has been under a heavy strain in the series, but he has made no complaint. The fact that Barney Dreyfuss has agreed to give the players the entire share of the receipts which goes to the Pittsburg club if they win the series has imbued them with more life, and if Boston wins it will be more through sheer good luck than anything else. Dreyfuss's offer will probably figure up more than $25,000, and that will be a neat sum to divide.

Boston is baseball mad, strange as it may seem to say such a thing at this time of year. In many hotels pools have been made and the buying of them has been extensive. Even yesterday everybody was ready to buy a ticket. Boston, of course, ruled favorite at odds of about 10 to 5, and there were many Pittsburgers who had all they had covered.

RYAN TELLS BELMONT
HE'S READY TO FIGHT

Plunger John J. Ryan has reiterated a statement that if the Jockey Club rules him off the turf he will fight him to a finish. He says, too, that he has told one of the members of the club, August Belmont, so. Ryan's latest statement came just before he started for the West. He says, though, that he will be back soon.

"When I was called to the Jockey Club last week," he said, "I met Mr. Belmont, Mr. Hitchcock and Mr. Dainigert. There was only talk of an informal nature. Mr. Belmont asked me if I had ever been ruled off at Fort Erie. I told him I had, but that I had nothing to do with the 'ringing' case there. When he asked me why I did not apply for reinstatement, I told him that I did not want to go to Canada again, because there is a warrant out for me there and I did not want to give them a chance to shake me down. "During the talk I said: 'Mr. Belmont, I am not looking for trouble, but I will go further to protect my constitutional rights than any living man. You may rule me off the turf, basing your action on the ruling of the Fort Erie Club, but I will fight you, and if they could talk me out of them could impugn my honesty in turf matters.' "This report must have tickled as well as surprised Mr. Belmont, for he laughed and said, 'Ryan, you are a bright fellow. What school were you educated in?' I replied, 'In the school of experience, the hardest school in the world, and I have profited by it.' "That was about all there was said. They did not rule me off. I don't know whether it was because there was not a quorum present, as has been alleged, or not. I do not know what they have decided. I have heard nothing further from them. I am waiting, but I am ready."

MORE WORK FOR FIGHTERS.

JOHNSON TO MET McVEY.

All details for the battle between Jack Johnson and Sam McVey, the colored heavyweights, for the title of colored heavyweight champion of the world, have been completed. The managers of the men signed articles of agreement calling for the men to meet in a twenty-round bout before the Century A. C. of Los Angeles, Cal., on October 27.

RYAN OUT OF MISSOURI A. C.

Tommy Ryan will soon be seen in a battle again. Ryan had a quarrel recently with the officials of the Missouri A. C. of St. Louis, of which he was the coach, instructor, and trainer. Ryan says that as he is free again to fight when and where he pleases he has decided to get ready to arrange a match with "Philadelphia Jack" O'Brien.

PITCHER DOHENY GOES TO ASYLUM

Men on the inside in baseball are not surprised to learn that Edward Doheny, the Pittsburg pitcher, has been sent to an insane asylum in Danvers, Mass. To players and those who follow their fortunes closely it has been known for several months that his mind was not normal, and some such ending has frequently been predicted.

Doheny left the Pirates several weeks ago, and for some time has been under the care of a nurse in Andover, Mass. There yesterday he attacked Oberlin Howarth, the nurse, with a stove poker, beating him over the head until he was unconscious, and then held a crowd of neighbors and policemen at bay for several hours.

Fearing such an outbreak, the nurse had watched the pitcher closely. For a brief moment he tossed his back, but it was long enough for Doheny to leap from bed, seize a poker and use it viciously. What school were you educated in? I replied, 'In the school of experience, the hardest school in the world, and I have profited by it.' "That was about all there was said. They did not rule me off. I don't know whether it was because there was not a quorum present, as has been alleged, or not. I do not know what they have decided. I have heard nothing further from them. I am waiting, but I am ready."

JEFFRIES COMING TO NEW YORK

Champion Jim Jeffries is due to arrive in this city soon. According to a telegram from Los Angeles, Cal., Jeffries' manager, the big fellow left there on Wednesday night and declared that he was coming straight to New York, where a play is being written for him.

HOGAN AFTER TERRY YOUNG.

"Kid" Hogan, the featherweight fighter of the west side, would like to meet Terry Young in a prize bout for a side.

BIG COLLEGE ELEVENS
BEGIN HARD GAMES NOWAMHERST TO TEST
COLUMBIA'S TEAM

Columbia's football team will show how strong it really is next Saturday when it lines up against the Amherst eleven, which sent Harvard down to defeat on Saturday. On paper Amherst looks the winner. Two weeks ago Harvard beat Williams 17 to 0, and the best of the Morningside Heights boys could do on Saturday was to win by a margin of 5 to 0.

YALE WILL HAVE SECRET PRACTICE

NEW HAVEN, Oct. 12.—This week will see Yale's football team in the last of the series of two games in a week. On Wednesday the sons of old Eli will line up against Holy Cross and Penn State will come on Saturday. The team, while it has been winning games rather easily, is not in as good shape as it might be. Bloomer's and Hogan's positions were easily gotten through by the Springfield boys on Saturday, and it is possible that they are not in the best of health. They may get it, for they have been worked unusually hard this season.

BILLIARD SEASON OPENS.

William Gershel and Ferdinand Pogorenburg will be the contestants in the opening game of the first amateur billiard tournament of the season. Mr. Gershel first was placed in Class B of the tournament that begins at Maurice Daly's this evening. He was expected to play 300 points to 275 for each of the other contestants, but later all were placed on the 300 mark.

TIGERS PREPARING FOR YALE GAME

PRINCETON, Oct. 12.—Developing a strong trio at center will occupy the time of Princeton's coaches this week. It is an eye to the game with Yale which has caused that move. The coaches are anxious to get a heavy set of men for the positions. With this idea in view Barney has been sent back to his old position at center. Short replaces him at guard, and De Witt is lying at the right side of the snap-back, instead of the tackle position. Reed is filling his place.

AUTOS ON RUN
PASS BUFFALO

BUFFALO, N. Y., Oct. 12.—Fourteen of the thirty-four automobiles which left Westphalen last Wednesday in an endurance run to Pittsburg, left here between 7 and 8 o'clock to-day at intervals of about thirty seconds and in the following order: Nos. 9, 5, 15, 10, 2, 4, 13, 20, 16, 11, 23, 39 and 37.

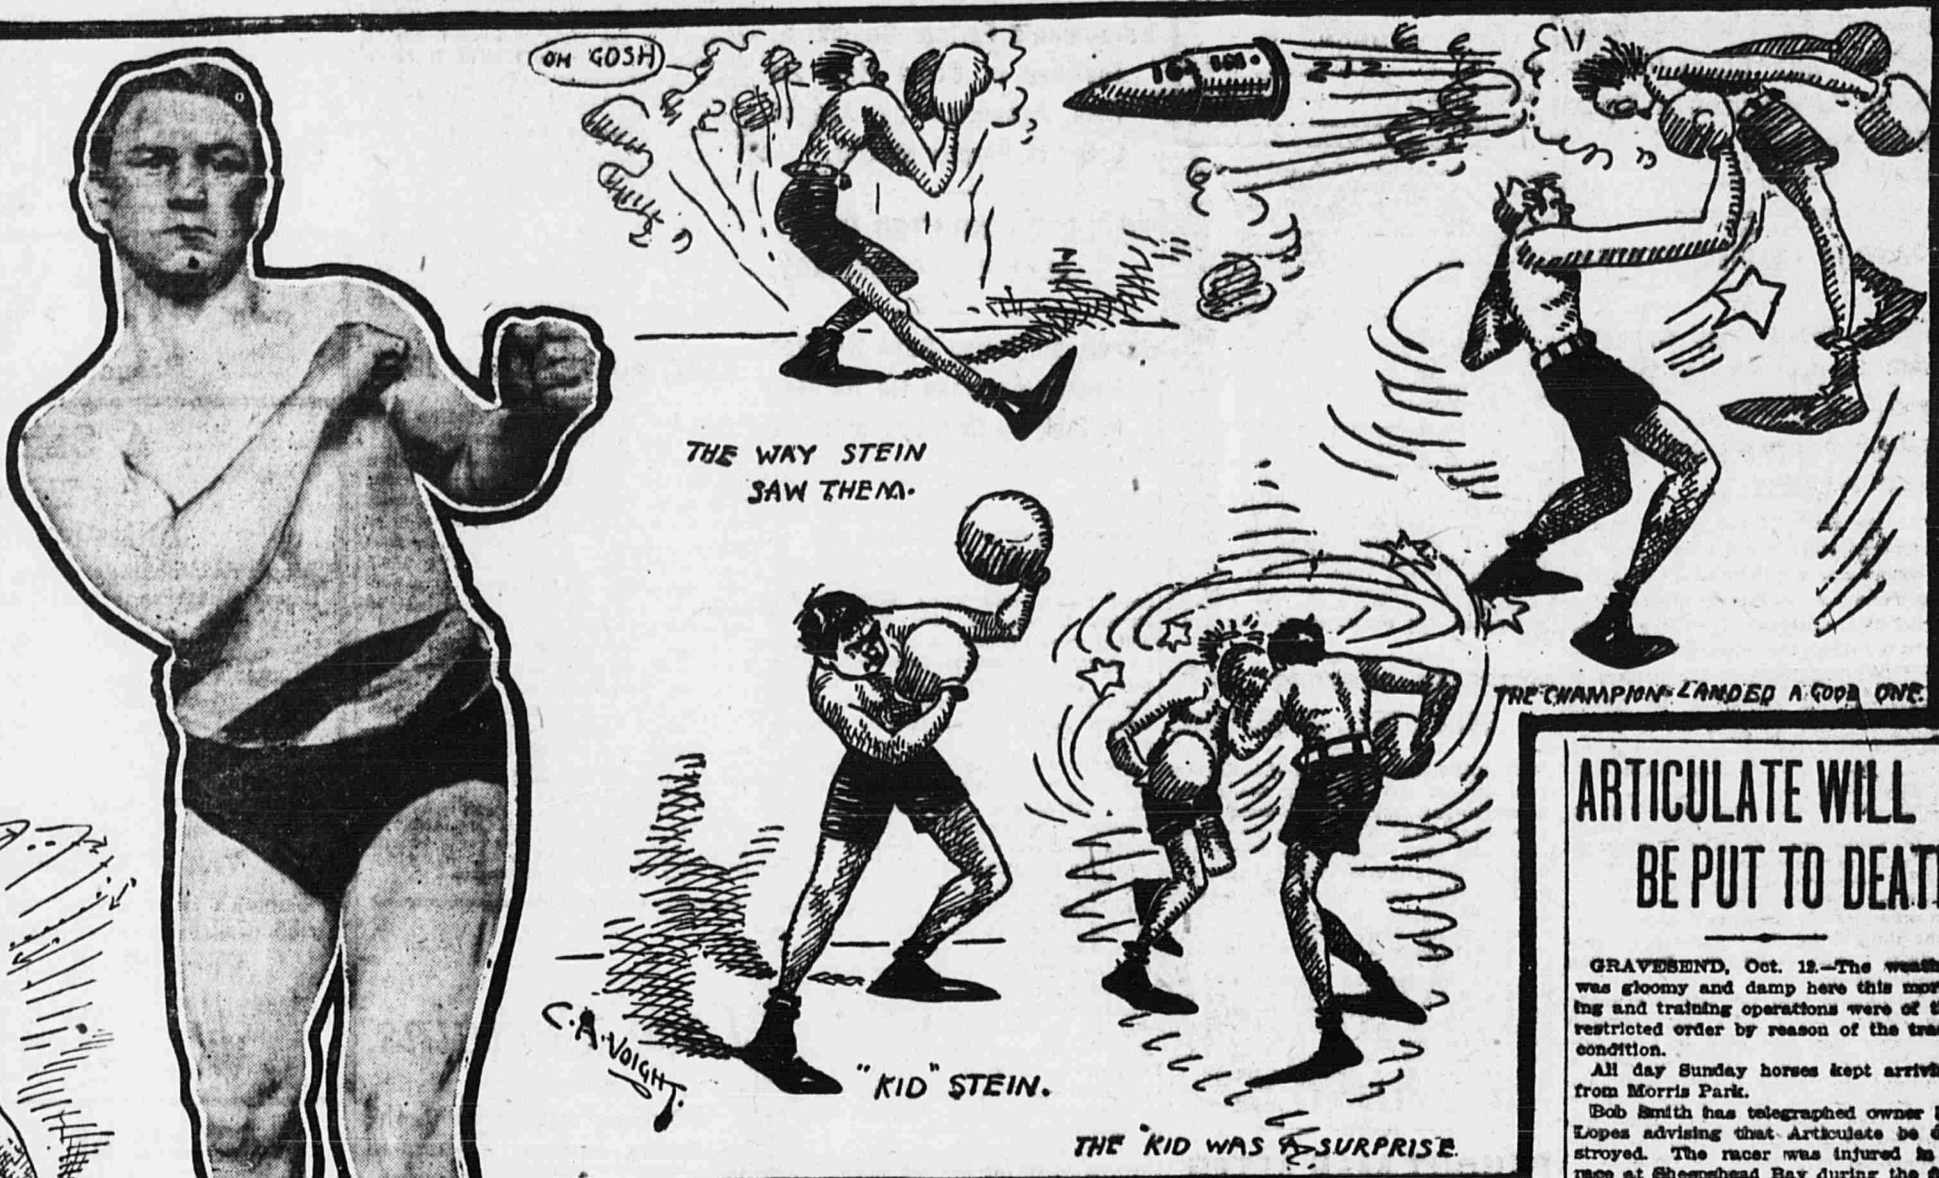

CORNELL'S WEAK POINTS.

ITHACA, N. Y., Oct. 12.—The game played by Cornell Saturday against Colgate showed more than ever before that there are three weak spots which must be filled soon if the eleven is to make any kind of a showing against Princeton. Left guard has been a worry all season. The two ends are not up to standard. Tackling, in particular, missed several times in Saturday's contest.

BIG PRICE FOR FOX TERRIER.

LONDON, Oct. 12.—The champion fox terrier Raby Coastguard, bred by the Duchess of Newcastle, was sold on Saturday by its present owner to a San Francisco breeder for nearly $1,000.

"YOUNG CORBETT" AND INCIDENTS OF HIS BATTLE WITH STEIN.

THE WAY STEIN SAW THEM.

"KID" STEIN.

THE "KID" WAS A SURPRISE.

"CORBETT" WON, BUT NOT WITH A KNOCKOUT PUNCH

"Kid" Stein Assumed the Jeffries Crouch in Philadelphia Bout and Thwarted All Efforts of the Champion Landing the Blow Soporific.

BY KNOCKOUT.

THE railbirds of Quakertown's Fistiana saw a six-round warming-up gallop Saturday night to the "Young Corbett"-Tim Callahan carnage, which takes place in Slowville next Wednesday a week.

The doughty little king of the feather-weights was worked out six rounds with one "Kid" Stein, a Ghetto Astic light, in the arena of the National Athletic Club.

The youngsters were sent off for the usual Philadelphia six-round spin, and they went the distance, with the champion setting a merry pace all the way.

Stein was trailing in the stretch when they hit the wire, pumped out to the last ounce, while the "Rocky Mountain Kid" cantered home on the bit, a city block to the good.

BRONX AIR GOOD FOR "CORBETT."

Two weeks' gallop over the hills of the Bronx sent the Denverite to the post in far better condition than he has been for any of his previous efforts in Philadelphia.

While he didn't "bury Mr. Stein at the head of the stretch," he pulled up sound as a dollar and without drawing a long breath.

And—strange as it may seem—the Ghetto star owed his presence in the race at the wind up more to his awkwardness than anything else.

It's a tough proposition to beat a man in six rounds who won't lead six times during the battle or who breaks all the sprinting records on the calendar during the session.

Likewise it is a knotty problem to hit a man who ties himself into nineteen different kinds of knots and stands on his ear for six rounds.

The latter was Mr. Stein.

STEIN IMITATED "JEFF."

Somebody showed him a picture of Jim Jeffries one day. And Stein did a little headwork thusly:

"Jeff is a champion. He stands 50. I'm not a champion, but I'll stand that way myself. 'Then some day maybe I'll keep some other champion from knocking my block into kingdom come.'"

And it proved good "dope" Saturday night.

It's "dope" that will keep Mr. S. from being lulled into dreamland many a time, but it's also "dope" that will keep him way down the pugilistic ladder of fame.

The only thing he has to recommend him as a fighter is his "ungetatable" and a dangerous long right hand, which he digs up out of the floor and swings into space blindly. And he is very stingy with his use of this right at that.

This "form chart" of Stein's astic tactics is really a "line" on Saturday night's battle.

WHEN "CORBETT" WAS HURT.

The "long right," dug out of the southeast corner of Mr. Stein's anatomy, connected with the top of the "Corbett" think box in the first minute of the opening session. It hurt all the way down to the champion's big toe.

So he put the "long right" on the dangerous list after that and kept it pinned to the Ghetto boy's side during the balance of the mix-up. This he did by a continuous patter of left jabs which, while neither effective nor spectacular, served the purpose.

For the rest of the attack the champion's charges were wasted against a tough game.

ARTICULATE WILL BE PUT TO DEATH

GRAVESEND, Oct. 12.—The weather was gloomy and damp here this morning and training operations were of the restricted order by reason of the track condition.

All day Sunday horses kept arriving from Morris Park.

Bob Smith has telegraphed owner Ed Lopes advising that Articulate be destroyed. The racer was injured in a race at Sheepshead Bay during the fall meeting and for a long while Trainer Smith had the horse in a sling. He failed to answer any treatment tried at him and yesterday blood poisoning set in and he is now in a hopeless condition.

Frank Taylor had McChesney on the track, but nothing was wanted, the racer being sent to easy galloping exercises.

Ed Graves had out six of his charges in good useful galloping work.

Reddy's cures for Mr. Stein and Strepton were sent seven furlongs in 1:17. Albertola and Applause galloped to half mile in 0:58. Scoundrel Belle was sent a quarter in 0:58. Erbe galloped one mile in 1:47.

Slade from the Fraying barn turned a nice five furlongs in 1:10.

Graham's Judge Phillips was sent a mile in 1:53. Graving and G. H. Reed of half a mile in 0:53. Precious Stone, Rapid Water and Golden Miners were sent the same route in 0:51 1/2.

Woodford Clay's Lowndale galloped four furlongs in 1:00.

Daly's Redman breezed five furlongs in 1:10. Miss Shylcock was sent three quarters of a mile in 1:15. Began and galloped seven furlongs in 1:40.

Bennett's Alorton stepped a quarter through the stretch in 0:33 1/2. Erbe galloped a half-mile in 0:55. Trilland did the trick in 0:53 3/4.

Scotto and Allen of Arville Zim were sent a mile in 1:53. Arville Zim's string, reeled off one mile in 1:53. Henry Clay Rye worked a mile in 1:53. Weatherstone's Lighter was sent a mile in 1:53 1/2. McKeekin and Reliance Rye worked one mile in 1:54.
